There has, we believe, been some talk about the advisability of abandoning trifling, it must be remembered that the county the station, but we are not aware, nor can we ascertain, that anything definite has yet been decided. It would be a pity to give up Port Hamilton after once occupying it, unless, of course, it is impossible to arrange terms with the Korean Government for its permanent acquisition. It may be admitted that there are some disadvantages attached to its retention. It produces nothing, and the islanders are a hopelessly lazy, deplorably ignorant, and unspeakably filthy race, whom it ever may be the issue of next month's battle, and would be difficult to civilize or to improve, rendering it necessary to encourage either Japanese or Chinese immigration. The Band of the 58th (Northamptonshire) Reriment will play to-morrow evening, from 9 to 10 p.m. The following is the programme:--

The Foochow Echo evidently does not approve the recent address presented to Admiral Dowell in Hongkong. It says:-"There is no need for comment on the address to Sir W. M. Dowell. It will pass into a custom now, and every Admiral will have to be 'addressed in The days when Englishmen did their duty and thought no more of it are passing away. Profuse thanks for the smallest service is now the order of the day, and soon we shall hear of the thanks of Parliament being voted to General somebody for having lived long enough to be promoted.

So far the result of the general elections in England appears to be favourable to the Government, for though their present majority is elections have yet to come, and the counties always return a majority of Conservatives. On the other hand, it is possible that the Liberals have a reserve of strength to come from Scotland and Wales. In view of the still existing uncertainty, the following remarks by "Atlas" in the World are interesting :- "There is no foundation whatever for the notion which seems generally to prevail, that if the elections result in a large majority against the Government Lord Salisbury will at once resign, following the example of Lord Beaconsfield in 1868 and 1880, and of Mr. Gladstone in 1874. It is the fixed intention of the Prime Minister to meet Parliament, whathe is justified in his decision by the precedents of Sir Robert Peel in 1835, Lord Melbourne in 1841, and Lord Derby in 1859. Lord Salisbury desires to place his legislative programme fairly before Parliament and the country; and besides, it is doubtful whether a lengthened debate on the amendment, which will of course be moved Liberal leaders in the event of their taking office. Britain, it is by no means certain that the Irish members would support an amendment to the Address, much less a vote of want of confidence."

The following remarks, illustrating the bene ficial effects of British Rule in Burmah, appear in a recent article in Blackwood :-- It has been prospect of any growing up very rapidly, said that the Burmese are as well governed as they deserve to be, and that they are incapable of understanding or of enjoying the higher of the natives in the provinces subject to England is sufficient to refute this. IN SUMMARY JURISDICTION. BEFORE ME. JUSTICE ACKROYD.

J. J. BUCHHEISTER V. GEORGE WILLIS, $400. Mr. Mossop appeared for the plaintiff; the defendant conducted his own case.

Mr. Mossop said the action was brought here by Messrs. Sander & Co., who held a power of attorney from Mr. Buchheister. The claim was for the value of a case of rifles delivered short in a consignment of 50 cases brought by the British steamer Timor. In answer to his Lordship. Captain Willis said his defence was that the bill of lading had not been signed by him, and it appeared by that bill that they had received on board for carriage 50 cases of rifles, all being mark "B. R." On the arrival of the Timor at this port 49 cases bearing this mark had been delivered to the plaintiff's agent, and another case marked "S. N." had been tendered to him, but he had refused to take delivery of it. There was a clause in the bill of lading which provided that the ship was not respossible if the cases were delivered not properly

Russell & Co., the agents for the steamer, and received Bank and take theshares, but in this case he had of any person who may be killed in attempting delivery of the cases of rifles, two cases short. After some time one of the missing cases was found and sent to Messrs. Sander & Co., the other was not discovered. And after some negociations his clients applied to Captain Willis | the plaintiff withcrev the shares from the Bank | dication of the lawless condition of the district about the matter, and received from him a lettor to the following effect—"Your letter claimng a case of rifles transhipped from New York has been handed to me by Messrs Russell & Co., and since neither my agents nor I have seen the he would not stand in the way of judgment now, bill of lading, neither did my officers take it on board in London, I cannot entertain your claim client hereafter. until I have had time to communicate with London," At that time Mesers. Sander & Co. had only the original bill of lading from New York in their possession, not the bill of lading signed for the Timor in London. They were consequently unable to act until they had written to their principal, in Shanghai. They then got the bill of lading signed in London which the captain denied having signed, and at the same time they received instructions to proceed immediately to recover the value of the missing case. In the meantime the Timor had left the harbour, and his clients had never heard a word from \$22.15 on the 26th inst. the defendant, although they had written to for the assistance of some of our colonies. The recent generous action of our Australian brothren in reference to the Soudan campaign sufficiently proves that their patriotism is a good deal more than a name, and their action then may be taken as an earnest of what they would do were the Empire attacked. That they are fully alive to the necessity of defending their own ports is Malwa (Old) amply shown in the progress made during the past few years in the defences of Sydney, Melbourne, and Adelaide. The former has a force Benares (Old) ......  $522\frac{1}{2}$  nom

There is a disposition on the part of the Home Government to take this matter up, and we earnestly trust that it will suffer no delay. The appointment of Major Glancy, R.E., to the department of the Inspector-General of Fortifications, with the view of inspecting and reporting fully on this subject, is a step in the right direction, and we hope that nothing will be permitted to delay his progress in this vital matter. The complications which have recently arisen in European politics may contain elements of disturbance that might embroil our country. Should such a struggle be unfortunately in store for us, the nation confides in the valour of our sailors and soldiers, and expects the administration to provide without stint the means necessary for them to uphold under all circumstances the honour of our flag.

TREATED FOR THE WRONG COMPLAINT. It is at all times hard to lose one whom we hold dear, but it is terribly so when we have the consciousness that but for mistaken treatment the leved one might have been with us still. In some cases the fact that the sufferer is treated for the wrong complaint is known in sufficient time to admit of the patient being saved, and the following is a case in point: little-more than two years ago, a beautiful young lady in New York was given up to die of consumption. Her fond parents took her to Paris as a last resort, hoping to find some skilfu physician there capable of arresting the rapid strides of the supposed dreadful disease. In this in that distant foreign city they met with a description of a new method of treating Dyspepsia, which emanated from the Mount Liebanon Shakers of the State of New York. The thought struck the parents of this helpless young girl that perhaps their daughter was afflicted with Indigestion or Dyspepsia, and not com-sumption; and if so, there might be a chance for

The fact was had been treated for the wrong comwhen she was treated for Dyspepsia ".uble), all the alarming symptoms of consumption vanished. This is not an isolated case.—The country is full of suffering thousands that are being treated for Liver Complaint, Malaria, Kidney Disease, Lung Disorders, &c., &c., when the fact is they are afflicted with Indigestion in some of its varied forms, and all a such sufferers would obtain relief if they were properly treated for Dyspepsic.

But I persuaded her to take your Seigel Carative Syrup, and after having used two and a half 60 ct. bottles she was restored to perfect health, and said she felt better than she had for five years. My daughter is now living and enjoying good health, but had it not been for your medicine she would have been now dead .- Yours, &c., "(Rev.) M. Melton.

"95, Newgate Street, Worksop, Notts. " December 26th, 1883. "Gentlemen,-It is with the greatest of pleasure I accord my testimony as to the efficacy of Mother Seigel's Syrup, My wife, who has suffered from acute Dyspepsia for over sixteen years, is now perfectly better through the sole help of your Syrap. I have spent pounds in Kowloon medicines from doctors—in fact, I began to think 6.00 a.m. she was incurable, until your marvellous medicine was tried.—I remain, yours thankfully, "Alfred Ford."
